

Allen V. Wilson

2110 Birdcreek Drive
Temple, Texas 76502
254-773-8311

Allen@txconstructionlaw.com

EDUCATION

Baylor Law School, Waco, Texas

Juris Doctor, Administrative Practice Concentration, magna cum laude, May 2013

- Baylor Law Review: Technical Editor
- Locke Lord Bissel & Liddell, LLP Writing Excellence Award, 2012–2013 academic year
- Stetson National Pretrial Competition Team, Fall 2011 (brief writer, third-place brief)

University of the Incarnate Word, San Antonio, Texas

Bachelor of Arts in English, magna cum laude, May 2009

- UIW Literary Magazine: Lead Editor
- Bernie O'Halloran Award for Excellence as an English Student

EXPERIENCE

Sanderford & Carroll, P.C.

Associate Attorney, September 2013 – present

State Office of Administrative Hearings, Austin, Texas

Intern, February – May 2013

Army Judge Advocate General's Corps, Fort Hood, Texas

Intern, June – August 2012

Texas Attorney General's Office, Consumer Protection Division, San Antonio, Texas

Intern, April – June 2012

U.S. District Court for the Western District of Texas, Judge Walter Smith, Waco, Texas

Intern, August – October 2011

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

- Mentor: Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Waco—Mentor (August 2011–July 2013)
- Baylor Justice Society— Student Member (litigation-centered pro-bono team) (September 2011–May 2013)
- Baylor Justice Society—Attorney Advisor (December 2013–present)

PUBLICATIONS

- More Than Just a Boon to Wealthy Debtors: How Texas Homestead Law Helped Insulate Texas From the Foreclosure Typhoon, 64 Baylor Law Review 999 (2012)