ADR/Arbitration

Mediators and Arbitrators

In addition to routinely litigating in front of arbitrators and mediating disputes, our firm offers direct arbitration and mediation services. We bring our decades of construction law and litigation to bear on settling and deciding disputes.

Our Attorneys

Managing Partner Brian Carroll has mediated hundreds of disputes. He routinely mediates construction, commercial, and complex civil litigation disputes and has a long track record of settling disputes. He is also a member of the distinguished American Arbitration Association's National Panel of Construction Arbitrators. Senior Partner Paul Sanderford and Partner Calvin Cowan are also experienced mediators. Paul brings Texas Dispute Resolution Institute Certification and a unique experience in government contracting cases. Calvin conducts mediations of all types. He holds both a 40-hour mediation certificate and has completed the 30-hour Advanced Family Mediation Training in accord with the Texas Alternative Dispute Resolution Act.
