

Steve Burton Serves as Featured Speaker

Steve Burton speaks to Construction Financial Management Association

Steve Burton served as the featured speaker at the Construction Financial Management Association – Central Texas Chapter April 2019 meeting. Mr. Burton's presentation, (Statutes of Limitation & Repose in Construction – When can the contractor stop worrying about liability arising out of completed projects and affected people?) covered important topics including statutes of limitations for tort, contract and breach of warranty claim. His presentation also covered the discovery rule and special time limitations important to contractors and subcontractors.
